

MAN IS RECONCILED TO GOD. GOD IS NOT RECONCILED TO MAN.

The sacrificial death of Christ was not offered to appease the angry wrath of the Father, nor to purchase the love and forgiveness of the Father for us. The love of God was not bought by Jesus. The love and the righteousness of God never changes. Romans 5:8 God showed His great love toward us by sending Christ to die for us. Jesus died on our behalf so that He is legally able in the courts of Heaven to take our sin away.

It was the love of God which sent Jesus to the Cross to die a sinless death for sin's condemnation and so that Jesus has the legal right to take away the sin of the world.

Romans 8:3

Jesus triumphs over sin and death. Romans 5:17 Colossians 1:20 Revelation 5

God does not change. His wrath is never appeased. God's love and the forgiveness in His heart toward sinners never changes. It is the heart of man which must change. Man needs to receive release from his bondage to sin. A sinner in cooperation with Holy Spirit conviction can be born again by faith in Jesus and receive release from bondage to sin. We are made right in God's sight when we trust in Jesus Christ to take away our sins. Romans 3:22a

Believing, repentant man is saved by His life received through faith. Romans 5:10

The believer is "in Christ" and is being made a new creation holy and blameless in His sight.

Eph. 1:4

Man must be changed in order to be made fit for living in the presence of God. New creations enter glory totally sinless and totally righteous. Romans 8:18-30

Man must choose to be reconciled to God. 2 Corinthians 5:20

There is no place in the Bible which declares that God must be reconciled to man.
